Salem College, Maine Presque Isle win Northeast Cross Country Championship

The Salem College women's cross country team and Maine Presque Isle men's cross country team were the recipients of the 2007 Association of Division Three Independent Northeast Cross Country Championship hosted by Newbury College in Franklin Park, Boston. Salem edged out, runner up finisher Maine Presque Isle, in the women's race, while a much improved Newbury College men's squad finished as runner-up in the men's race.

In the women's individual results, Salem's Rachel Fichthorn (Nokesville, VA), dominated the field of 24 with an impressive time of 20:35, as second place finisher Michelle Philips (Riverview, NB) from Main Presque Isle ran well with a time of 21:06.

Hirrel Siller Jr. (Palo Alto, CA), continued his dominance in his meets this season, winning his 6th race out of seven this year. The Newbury junior was defending champion of the D3 Independents and backed it up this year with a superior performance and a time of 26:59. Joshua Wang (Portland, ME) ran very well for Green Mountain College and finished a strong second place with a time of 27:46, nipping Michell College's John Hoffman (Bala Cynwyd, PA) by 8 seconds.
